

Having your tooth filled at the dentist

What is a filling?

- If you have a hole in a tooth (tooth decay) the dentist will remove the decay from the tooth and put in a filling to stop you from having pain.

During your appointment...

You will be asked to take a seat in the dental chair.

The chair will lie back.

The light will go on.

You will be asked to open your mouth wide and the dentist will use a mirror.

The tooth will need to be numbed.
You will need an injection/ needle in your mouth.

The dentist will use a drill to clean the hole in your tooth.

The drills are noisy.

The nurse will use suction to remove the water in your mouth.

The dentist will put the filling in your tooth.
The filling will be white or silver.

The dentist might shine a blue light on the filling.

The tooth is now filled.

Your tooth may feel sensitive for a short while afterwards.
